WHY THIS ROUTE

- Short, early-arrival days. The longest leg is 28 nm; most are under four hours, leaving afternoons free.
- A two-night rest in Vrboska. The boats stay put on Day 5, so the group can explore, swim, cycle or head out for the evening without a berth to chase.
- Mostly marina nights. Four of five nights are in marinas with power and water; only Vis is first-come on the town quay.
- Variety. A big-name harbor town, a remote island, a canal-like village and a boutique castle marina, with swim stops between.

The charter base, a resort marina with restaurants. Boarding is from about 17:00 on Saturday, with a short sunset walk to the Dragon's Eye lake (Zmajevo oko). Boats must be back before 17:00 on Friday to refuel and hand over; checkout is Saturday 26 June. Dinner: Restaurant Ancora in the marina.

SWIM STOP · DAY 2

A turquoise, sheltered bay between the Drvenik islands, about 1½ hours from Frapa and right on the way to Milna. Swim, snorkel and lunch on board. Day buoys may carry a small fee or minimum spend.

1 Milna, Brač

ACI MARINA · NIGHT 1 · €296

A pretty harbor town at the western end of Brač with a handsome church-and-harbor skyline and waterfront konobas. An easy first evening: aperitivo on the Riva, then Konoba Gajeta (fish and grill) or Konoba Kod Grge (under the olive trees). Book the berths together through ACI.

2 Vis town

TOWN QUAY · NIGHT 2 · ≈ €204

The most remote inhabited island, closed to visitors until 1989, with a long waterfront of cafés and wine bars. Arrive by about 12:30 to secure quay space for three boats (first-come; buoys in Vis bay are the fallback). Stroll the Kut quarter, then take a taxi up to the British-built Fort George for sunset. Dinner at Pojoda or Lola Konoba & Bar.

Vbroska - HVAR

LOCATION NOTES · 2 OF 2

Where we'll stop

3 Vrboska, Hvar

ACI MARINA · NIGHTS 3 AND 4 · ≈ €252 A NIGHT

The heart of the revised route: a calm village at the end of a long, narrow inlet, with small bridges, a fortified church and waterfront restaurants. Two nights on the same berths give a free day for beaches, a bike ride or taxi to Jelsa and Stari Grad, wine tasting (Vina Carić has a tavern here), or an evening in Hvar town for Hula Hula sunset and the old-town bars. Dinner at Trica Gardelin. Book one continuous two-night stay for all three boats.

4 Maslinica, Šolta

MARINA MARTINIS MARCHI · NIGHT 5 · ≈ €270

A boutique 50-berth marina beneath a restored 18th-century castle: the farewell night. Stop first for a swim and lunch in Šešula bay, just around the corner. Dinner at Konoba Šešula (a short walk or tender ride) or Restoran Šampjer. With so few berths, reserve all three together and early.

• Drvenik Mali

LAST SWIM · DAY 7

One final swim before the short run back to Marina Frapa, arriving by about 13:30 with a comfortable margin before the 17:00 deadline.
